News Notes and Gossip of Interest to Horsemen and Golfers

Entries for the "Gost" Contest of the Washington Country Club

Capt. A. A. Fries, W. G. Campbell. B. Calvert, G. E. Truett, ascom Johnson, G. Andrews, E. H. Bowie, R.'A. Oakley, H. T. Frost, A. W. Dunn. W. H. Woodman, A. Zappone, Earl Wheeler, R. W. Schuman Dr. L. B. Johnson, T. T. Smith, W. H. Littlepage, F. L. Dunlap.

By EDWARD W. KIBBEY.

E. B. Caivert, chairman of the green ommittee of the Washington Country Club, said last week that the tember instead of this week, as originally intended. The beginning of this contest was postponed on account of the Johnson cup competition, which is now in full sway at the club. It will come to a close the last week in this month, and it is expected that nearly all the players in this competition will enter the "goat" contest.

Eighteen entries have already been re Eighteen entries have aiready been re-ceived, and, judging from the great in-terest shown by the members, it will undoubtedly meet with the same success as has the Johnson cup competition. Some of the best players of the club have entered, among them being W. G. Cam-pell, W. H. Littlepage, and Dr. Loren B. T. Johnson, chairman of the house committee. E. B. Calvert has also en-tered.

tered.

The handsome medals are now on exhibition at the clubhouse. They are of special design, and show in relief the name Washington Country Club, and a good on one side, and the other side will have the name of the owner engraved thereon.

thereon.

The conditions of the contest follow:

1. Competition match play under post ed handicap, the number of strokes to be conceded to be three-quarters of th difference between the handicaps of th players. Strokes to be given at holes as indicated on card posted in clubhouse.

2. A member holding a medal may challenge any other medal holder, the loser to surrender his "goat" to the win ner.

The loser may challenge the winner 2. The loser may challenge the winne but twice for the recovery of his "goat," and for each unsuccessful effort forfet a golf ball to the keeper of his "goat."

4. A member having lost his "goat" and not holding any other "goat" may challenge any holder of a "goat," provided he forfett a golf ball for each fail ure to with a time.

Under no conditions may a played for more than one "go

6. At the end of the prescribed period of play. December 1, the player holding the most number of "goats" will be appended the "goatherd" and be presented with a special medal, which will become his permanent property. All the "goat" medals will be returned to their original owners, ready for the next season of play.

the Washington Country Club are away the Washington Country Club are away on their vacations, the weekly tourneys, which were held every Saturday afternoon, will be postponed until the first week in September. Much interest has been shown in these matches by the women, and it is expected that many more will take part when they are resumed next month Each Saturday a handsome silver trophy is offered by one of the women of the club.

W. H. Campbell won an interesting twosome from E. H. Bowle last Wednes twosome from E. H. Howe hast wednes-day afternoon at the Washington Coun-try Club, the score being 4 up and 3 to play. Mr. Campbell is improving in his game, and is among the leaders in the Johnson cup competition.

Dr. Shoup and T. Manuel were out or the course of the Washington Ciub last Wednesday afternoon. of the Washington Country

Wednesday afternoon Bascom Johnson was out playing his favorite game alone. T. Manuel and George E. Truett en-joyed a round by themselves Tukeday aft-

George E. Truett, one of the most enthusiastic golfers at the Washington Country Club, won a fast and interesting match from A. W. Dunn last Wednesday afternoon by the score of 2 up and 1 to play.

Wednesday afternoon E. B. Calvert, chairman of the greens committee, won a match from Maj, Bryan by 5 up and 4 to play.

Harry T. Frost lost a well-played single to W. G. Campbell on the course of the Washington Country Club last Sun-day atternoon. The score was 5 up and 8 to play. The match was played in the

E. B. Calvert, who is still leading in Bascom Johnson and his wife, who is in ardent admirer of the royal and an-

An interesting threesome was played on the course of the Washington Coun-try Club last Tuesday afternoon between George Andrews, Harry Woodman, and the winner by Dr. Loren B. T. Johnson, chairman of the house committee.

E. B. Calvert, chairman of the greens committee, who was leading last week when the official scores were published exclusively in The Washington Herald, is still at the top, and from present indications will stay there if he keeps up his fast work. He has won fifteen matches and lost only-four, which is a percentage of 789. Mr. Calvert played three matches last week. He won two and lost one.

percentage of .782. Mr. Calvert played three matches last week. He won two and lost one.

W. G. Campbell and Thomas Weedon. who was second last week, are both in second place, having won ten matches and lost three, which is .789 per cent. Mr. Campbell has a good chance for the cup, as he has been doing well during the past two weeks, and if he hits his old-time stride will surely spring a big surprise next week. Mr. Campbell has two good matches scheduled for this week, and if he wins them both will be among the leaders. Friday he played George E. Truett, and this afternoon he will meet Mail. Bryan. Mr. Weedon, who was leading in the race two weeks ago, also has a good chance for the cup. Capt. A. A. Fries, who was third last week, and Earl Wheeler, who was fourth, are now tied for third place, as each has thirteen wins and four loses to his credit, which is a percentage of .765. This is only 0.4 per cent below that of Campbell and Weedon, who are in second place.

The conditions of the tourney follow:

that of Campbell and Weedon, who are in second place.

The conditions of the tourney follow: Each member has the privilege of challenging any other member once during the three summer months. The cup will be awarded the player who has lost the fewest matches, provided he has been challenged at least twenty times. Handicap match play rules govern the contest. The official scores, with the percentages up to Thursday, follow in order:

Name.

Won. Lost. Pct.

Name.

Won. Lost. Pct.

re	Name.	Won.	1
iė	E. C. Calvert	15
n	Thomas Weedon
111	Capt. A. A. Fries.	13
ď	Earl Wheeler	13
u	W. H. Littlepage	11
	A. Zappone	7
:	E. H. Bosche	7
t-	T. B. Jewell	9
to	Kara Gould
	Harry Woodma
ıe	F. P. Williams.	•
ie	Albert Hale. A	3
15	Arthur Durm (withdrawn)
	George Andrews	8
	C. B. Miller	5
y	Ralph Jowell	1
e	Dr. H. P. Cobey	•
1-	Dr. Loren B. Johnson	2
	Rascon Johnson	-
er.	R. B. Leoker	5
	Joseph Taber Johnson	- 2
	W. E. Bailard	3
t	Harry Frost	•
*	T. Turner Smith	1
	E. B. Locker	1
y	A. O. Yates	å
,	John C. Davison	ň
	F. L. Dunlap	ĭ
t-	R. W. Schumann	1
	nidney Taliaferm	7
h	Hurry Walters
	Stanford Briggs	1
	Otto Leubkert	2
	Dr. P. M. Rirey	ě
đ	Albert Mann
5	Donglas Mackall	0
-	Frank Urman	0
đ	Malcolm Coles	0
	J. S. Ball	0
e	A. Stengel	0
	F. M. Ball	0
	The Winesh

Another well-played twosome took place at the Washington Country Club last Tuesday afternoon when Dr. Joseph Taber Johnson, went around with Dr. P. M. Rixey.

John Klein, professional at the Washington Country Club, said that a num-ber of golfers were out last week, espe-cially on Tuesday, when a great many matches were played in the Johnson cup Coles took part in a single at the Wash-out on the course of the Columbia Coun ington Country Club last Tuesday after try Club last Tuesday afternoon.

Monday afternoon Harry Prost and Harry Woodman played a round at the Washington Country Club.

Miss Margaret Johnson and Albert

John Klein, professional at the Vir-John Klein, professional at the Virginia Club, is improving the putting greens and filling in the guilles of the course, especially at the thirteenth hole. Mr. Klein has been working faithfully on the course this summer, and in another year will undoubtedly make it one of the prettiest courses around Washington.

It was announced at the Washington Country Club last week that Arthur Dunn had withdrawn from the Johnson cup competition.

Harris Hoot and W. C. Locker were out on the course of the Chevy Chare Club last Friday afternoon. They were the guests of Alexander Britton.

A. T. C. Gordon, Capt. Denfeld, and Charles Conrad played a round by them-selves last Friday afternoon at the Chevy Chase Club.

Dr. Lee Harban and George P. James were among the many golfers who en-joyed playing on the Columbia Country Club last Sunday afternoon.

C. L. Marlett played an interesting single with George Weaver last Friday afternoon at the Cheye Chase Club.

Another well-played twosome at the Chevy Chase Club last Friday afternoon was that between G. C. Minnigerode and E. W. Donn.

Rudolph Kauffmann and C. L. Marlett were out playing their favorite game on the course of the Chevy Chase Club last Thursday afternoon. Mr. Kauffmann has improved greatly in his long game re-cently, while Mr. Marlett is doing better on the putting recent

Always the Same Tharp's

Berkeley Rye

Larry Gardner, of the Red Sox, picks forth is said to have a 'whip' that curls out as the greatest play he ever has to the plate "like a dart," and he seems teen the one that Carrigah made at the to be able to "knock the eye out of a plate to catch Crawford, in the sixth Southern training camp. out as the greatest play he ever has seen the one that Carrigah made at the plate to catch Crawford, in the sixth laning of the first game of last Wednes-both Mrs. Daisell and Mrs. Lard to be much better than when they were out last on the course. It is interesting to note that they are undoubtedly the most enthusiastic women golfers at the Chevy Chase Club.

have seen equaled."

Manager Chance, of the Cubse is absolutely convinced that Victor Saler, the youth, will develop into a star first baseman, and Chance is now engaged in teaching the youngster the finer points of the game at first. There is one play that Chance has a copyright on. He is teaching that play to the youth. That is, the manner of taking a thrown ball inside of the runner and yet escaping njury. For that play is about she hardest that the first baseman is called upon to master. Senators Bristow, Brown, and Dixo Since Senators Bristow and Brown have taken rooms at the club they have great-ly improved in their game. They are seen out on the course playing their fa-vorite game nearly every day. Otto Leubkert, of the Columbia Coun

Stahl would probably still be playing first for Boston if it were not for Tay-lor's peculiar disposition. As the story goes, Taylor, without any reason, sud-J. Letts and C. Lyon were also out at the Columbia Country Club last Thursgoes. Taylor, without any reason, sud-denly stopped speaking to Stahl last season. He passed up the first baseman, so to speak, without cause, and Stahl took this very much to heart, and made up his mind there and then to quit base-ball. Stahl's retirement has been a hard blow to Taylor's team, for there is no doubt that with the hard-hitting first baseman in the line-up the Boston team would have been much more formidable this season. lumbia Country Club, said that work on building a new caddle house will be started the last week in this month, started the last week in this month, and, judging from the plans, it will undoubtedly be one of the largest and best equipped houses of its kind in this city. The second floor will be for the servants that work at the club. The new house will be situated about 100 feet south of Manager Jimmy Burke, of the Indian-apolis club, says he thinks he has solved Marty O'Toole's mystifying delivery. Burke might do well to visit Chicago. No doubt the chubby one would like to dine him.

the first tee and about the same distance

A fast and interesting threesome was played at the Chevy Chase Club last Thursday afternoon between Cof. Rich-ards, J. P. Martin, and Reeve Lewis.

Robert Farnham won the sweepstakes held at the Columbia Country Club last Sunday afternoon when he made a gross core of 89, and with a handicap of 12,

There are a great many golfers out on last Sunday afternoon. Among them were M. E. Danforth, chairman of the greens committee; G. H. Chamberlain, J. B. Thurston, T. O. Varnell, P. G. Hill, S. Hill, P. M. Philips, and Dr. Parts E. Brancle.

R. J. Beall and A. Winter enjoyed a round of golf at the Columbia Country Club last Sunday afternoon. A. I. Clark and H. Huff were also cut Sunday after-

Senator Guggenheim, who also has a room at the Columbia Country Club, played with R. J. Beall last Sunday

Tuesday afternoon Dr. Lee Harban, one of the best players at the Columbia Country Club; Allan-Lard, and Samuel

Dalzell, the last two being members of the Chevy Chase as well as Columbia some last Tuesday afternoon. He played with John C. Davidson and A. S. Mat

The course of the Columbia Country

RACING CARD FOR MONDAY.

Hamilton.

101 Seven Stars 108 The Bump.

one-half furishes.
Irus Queen. 100 Barney Igoe.
Troeton Field. 110 Fignier.
Chippewayan. 110 Mattis Kep.
Moscrief. 25 Handrunning.
Chity Hunk. 15 Wrap.

C. Chamberlain and H. Locker

A Philadelphia critic says that Dan-forth, the Athletics' new pitcher, looks like "the prettiest prize Mack has pick-ed from the tree in some time." Dan-haning of the first game of last Wednesday's double-header in Boston. "I don't mean my part of it." he says, "but the throw I made to Carrigan never was seen by him at all. Crawford was running, working to have the throw hit him on the back, but the ball passed between his knees just as he started his silde, hit Carrigan's mitt and was held to complete a play that I believe I never have seen equaled."

Manager Mack's hoapital list is called the low list in the list of he game at first base his knees just as he started his silde, hit Carrigan's mitt and was held to complete a play that I believe I never have seen equaled."

Manager Chance of the Cubsa is absolutely convinced that Victor Saier, the youth, will develop into a star first base man, and Chance is now engaged in teaching the youngsier the finer points of the game at first. There is one play hat Chance has a copyright on. He is teaching that play to the youth, Talled the low low last and the list is called the low had a few dead the low had he manner following in Jesus have the low had a big hole to plug. Delehantly has filled it in creditable fassion. If the Tigers succeed in beating out the Athorth had the low had a big hole to plug. Delehantly had a big hole to plug. Delehantly had big hole to plug, Delehantly had big hole to plug, Delehantly had be game at first. There is one play had a big hole to plug. Delehantly had be dead to credit will be due Del as any man on the team.

President Herrmann, of the Cincinnat club, is ready to prove that Almelda and Marsans, two Cubans recently purchased Marsans, two Cubans recently purchases from New Britain, Conn., are no negroes, in case protest is made. The pair reported to the Cincinnati club of June 29. Ralph Almeida is an infielder and Armando Marsans is an outfielder.

TOUCHARD AND LITTLE WIN.

New York, Aug. 12.-Robert D. Little and Gustave F. Touchard captured the New York State double tennis champion ship to-day on the courts of the Crescent Athletic Club at Bay Ridge, when they defeated M. E. Loughlin and Thomas Bundy in three of four sets.

Bundy in three of four sets.

The winning team started off in the opening, set by defeating their rivals by the score of 13-11. In the following encounter, McLoughlin and Bundy turned the tables by playing a smashing game and scoring victory, 12-19.

In the following two matches Little and Touchard displayed marvelous skill and cleanly outplayed their opponents. They won the third match by the score of 6-2, and the one that settled the championship was decided 6-3.

TROTTER AND PACER

□ Bits of Baseball □ Review of Wonderful Week in the Grand Circuit. North Randall Track One of Fastest in Country-Other News and Gossip.

By L. D. SALE.

The week that is past has been one of the dead thrills, and then more thrills.

Three events of the hour tower like a mountain above the plain—Thlan's mile is sent that the form the face of the face is the first heat in the third heat by taking it in 2.07 2-4, while belvasia took the first heat in the fast time of 2.06 1-4. Stroller is by Allerton, 2.09 1-4, while belvasia took the first heat in the fast time of 2.06 1-4. Stroller is by Allerton, 2.09 1-4, while belvasia took the first heat in the fast time of 2.06 1-4. Stroller is by Allerton, 2.09 1-4, while belvasia took the first heat in the fast time of 2.06 1-4. Stroller is by Allerton, 2.09 1-4, while belvasia took the first heat in the fast time of 2.06 1-4. Stroller is by Allerton, 2.09 1-4, while belvasia took the first heat in the fast time of 2.06 1-4. Stroller is by General Forest, and by taking it in 2.07 2-4, while belvasia took the first heat in the fast time of 2.06 1-4. Stroller is by Allerton, 2.09 1-4, while belvasia took the first heat in the fast time of 2.06 1-4. Stroller is by General Forest, and the second of the careful preparation of Geers and his brilliant reinsmanship, he did manage to the careful preparation of Geers and his brillian treinsmanship, he did manage to the careful preparation of Geers and his brillian treinsmanship, he did manage to the careful preparation of Geers and his brillian treinsmanship, he did manage to the careful preparation of Geers and his brillian treinsmanship, he working out these important reforms. These men were the fathers of the Grand Circuit of to-day, and every horseman in the Union owes to them a debt of gratifude for their work.

The above events are giory sufficient. The last named took a two-year-old record for the North Randali track, near Clevelord of the North Randali track, n LOCAL BOATING NEWS

The stars of the Grand Circuit of 1911, trotting, are worthy of more than a passing notice. They are Soprano, owned by John E. Madden, driven by W. J. Andrews; Jean, owned by David Shaw, of Cieveland, and driven by McDevit, and John E. T. C., owned and driven by McDevit, trotting; Arzot Hale, owned and driven by Mr. Jones, who is a Memphis street car magnate and who owned and driven by Mr. Jones, who is a Memphis street car magnate and who owned and driven by Mr. Jones, who is a Memphis street car magnate and who owned and driven by Mr. Jones, who is a Memphis street car magnate and who owns and driven by Mr. Jones, who is a Memphis street car magnate and who will pleasure, as well as incidental profit, and last but not least Gold Dollar, Anvil, and Charley Mitchell. On Mr. Jones' staff is the peerless Tennasses trainer and refusman, E. F. Geers, and between Mr. Jones' wealth and equine sagacity and Mr. Geers' knowledge and skill in the sulky they are a combination hard to conquer.

HAMILTON RESULTS.

In the pacing brigade Earl, jr., is easily the star pacer of the year, and, while he is being hard pushed by the wonder of 1919. Independence Boy, his strength and power of endurance are so appeared to the has a manded that he promises to go far into the racing season without having his colors being in marketial danger. From the day he faced the starter at Indianapolis his improvement has been gradual, although it must be admitted he has on some occasions given his admitters and hackets some severe cases of heart failure. Independence Boy and Earl, jr., are right now two-minute pacers in a race, and, if they do not stale by reason of the fast pace they are going, they may reach or even beat the two-minute mark by the time the horsen reach Columbus or Lexington.

HIRLITUR RACE—Six funders: Middless, it is a filled, it is a fall funder, it is a fall funder, it is a fall funder. Independence Boy and Earl, jr., are right now two-minute pacers in a race, and, if they do not stale by reason of the fast pace they are going, they may reach or even beat the two-minute mark by the time the horsen reach Columbus or Lexington.

HIRLITUR RACE—Six funders: Middless, it is a fall funder, it is a fall funder. It is a fall funder, it is a fall funder, it is a fall funder, it is a fall funder. It is a fall funder, it is a fall funder. It is a fa

It will be a great day for the pacing fraternity when the Earl, Independence Boy. The Eel, Vernon McKinney, and Brauham Baughman meet each other in a race. The two last named have two minute or better speed, but have the reputation of being unsteady. With a good day and good track, the horses fit and the weather and stars working all in conjunction, it would be an event worth traveling across the continent to witness. In the second division of side-wheelers are such fast ones as Ernest, in Coxe's stable; Zulu Hal, Eddie Dillard, Hal Akin, and C. The Limit. Some of the pacers in the second division may pass into the first one before Lexington; is reached; or, possibly, by the time the horses reach Columbus some pacer may creep out of the tail grasses of the prairies of the Middle West and give the best of the lot in the first division a race for the money, and perhaps send them into winter our research. It will be a great day for the pacing

Language Eay, Betterion. Md., and other mear-by resorts in his power yacht Telmah, The party included A Cassels and E. K. Lowe, of Pitipburg, Pa.

The "Kraxy ..at Kamp," which is situated on the Virginia shore, about a half his situa were made as to her future. As for Soprano, seasoned by two years of racing, it is quite swident that Means, Andrews and Madden think that in her they have another Hamburg Belle, and it may well be that they have. Mr. Madden is one of the wisest men on the turf, in either the trotting or the running game, and his mistakes of judgment are few.

The fastest trotting stallion of the season of 1911 up-to date is the Austrianbred horse Williur M. Willy is owned by Walter Whan, of England, a self-expatriated American, and he showed what a good horse he is when, on Wednesday is last, he drove Soprano out in the first 2:01 1-2, and Earl, jr., has cut his record of 2:06, gained over the same track, to 2:09 1-2.

The above events are giory sufficient for the North Randail frack, near Cleveland, which would seem to be quite as fast as the abandoned one where Maud S., upward of thirty years ago, trotted to a world's record of 2:08 2-4 to a high-wheel sulky. Every person interested in the onward march of the light harness horse will rejoice that Cleveland has had so much henor reflected upon her by the events of the past week. For a half century she has not only been the center of light harness interest, but one of the main props of the Grand Circuit. It has been characteristic of Cleveland as the content of the main props of the Grand Circuit. It has been characteristic of Cleveland as the content of the main props of the Grand Circuit. It has been characteristic of Cleveland as the content of the main props of the Grand Circuit. It has been characteristic of Cleveland as the content of the main props of the Grand Circuit. It has been characteristic of Cleveland as the content of the main props of the Grand Circuit. It has been characteristic of Cleveland as the content of the main props of the Grand Circuit. It has been characteristic of Cleveland as the content of the main props of the Grand Circuit. It has been characteristic of Cleveland as the content of the main props of the Grand Circuit. It has been characteristic of Cleveland as the content of the main props of the Grand Circuit. It has been characteristic of Cleveland as the content of the main props of the Grand Circuit. It has been characteristic of Cleveland as the content of the main props of the Grand Circuit. It has been characteristic of Cleveland as the content of the main props of the Grand Circuit. It has been characteristic of Cleveland as the content of the content of the main proper of the content of the cont

Jack Denomero-4:13, Hannah Louise, Race Broos, and Thirtickale also yan. FIFTH RACE-Branthed Handicap: three-pear-olds and upward; $1,000 added; one and one-quarter oils and upward; $1,000 added; one and one-quarter miles. Superstition, 100 (Metcharp), 3 to 1, won; Bob R., 100 (Bell), 7 to 5, second; Aymer, 105 (Wilson), out, third. Time, 2.55.4.5, Taboo and (Wilson), out, third.

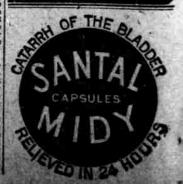

miles Superstition, 102 (McCabey), 3 to 1, won; libó R., 106 (Bell), 7 to 5, second; ayimer, 105 (Wilson), out, third. Time, 2:68+5. Taboo and Coccele also ran.

SIXTH RACE-Seiling; three-rest-olds and upward; 500 added; the and coc-half furious, Salvolatile, 25 (McCabey), 3 to 5, won; Muskmalon, 87 (Syme), 5 to 1, second; Coccey K., 102 (Henry), 8 to 5, third, Time, 106+3. Mark Kennedy, Thrifty Cuban, Lady Syld, Colegopter, North Cut, Servicence, and Vrseland also rim.

SEVENTH RACE-Seiling; three-rest-olds and upward; 500 added; the and one-half furious, Eagle Bild, 100 (Struc), 5 to 1, won; Mercons, 5 (Bell), even, third. Time, 106-34. Flying Frootstep, Carillon, Wieming Wilcov, Caspine, 507, three-rest, 104-1, the 105-34. Flying Frootstep, Carillon, Wieming Wilcov, Caspine, 507, three-rest-olds and upward; selling; one and mo-eighth miles on turf. Michael Angelo, 116 (Forekand), 12 to 1, wen; Bounder, 96 (Brites), 21 to 1, sectod 1 Topiand, 105 (Wilson), even, third. Time, 125-25. Cheek, Scarui, Third Rail, Seconds, and Long Hand also ran.

ECKSTEIN'S

Where the Best Lunch in Town Is Served— 12 to 3

About a dozen members of the Corinth-ian Yacht Club started on the club's an-nual cruise yeaterday afternoon, and a race of one man in two cances. He judging from the interest shown and the splendid start that was made, it will undoubtedly be not only the most suc-cessful but the most enjoyable cruise ever held by the Corinthians. The boats started about 3 o'clock.

The members will go as far as St.
George Island and the lower river. They will be gone about two weeks. There were a number of other boats that fol-lowed the cruisers down the river for a lowed the cruisers down the river for a short distance.

The names of the parties and their boats follow: N. B. Wolcott, in his launch, O. K.; C. B. Plaskett and party, including F. L. Franc and Frank Rupp, in his 25-foot launch, Ruby; A. W. Simpson, in his 35-foot launch, Lotts; Commodore Clarence E. Ingling, in his 35-foot launch, Vika. He was accompanied by Fred Schneider. G. N. Waterberry also started on the trip in his 45-foot raised-cabin cruiser, Elk.

David Les and Ed Schmitt, both the Washington Canoe Club, have a camp about a half mile up the river camp asout a nair mise up the river from the Aqueduct Bridge. They left last week for their other camp at Seneca, Md. It is known at Camp Milliped. Miss Joy Marston, champion woman cancelst of the District, is among the party:

E. B. Eynon, formerly chairman of the greens committee of the Columbia Coun-try Club, took part in another three-Last Wednesday evening the member of the Potomac Boat Club held a most successful as well as a most enjoyable moonlight excursion forty miles down the The steamer Charles Macalester river. The steamer Charles Macalester stopped at Marshall Hall both going and returning. Many people enjoyed dancing there. Excellent weather conditions prevailed. In fact, it was an ideal moonlight right, and the singing by the members, and especially the fair sex, added much to the enjoyment of the evening.

Tuesday afternoon, and judging from the interest shown and the number of entries, it will undoubtedly be one of the most suc-cessful affairs held under the auspices of the club this season. The races will start at 5 o'clock. The programme includes singles, doubles, and fours in canoes and shells, besides a number of

Maj. William O. Owen, of the Corin thian Yacht Club, left for Colonial Beach last Sunday afternoon in his thirty-foo power cruiser William O. Owen, He will probably return to-morrow night.

Dr. Emory Bryant, of the Capital Yacht Club, went up the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal in his sloop George E. last Sunday. He will remain at Cumberland, Md., about two weeks

Sully Maise, of the Corinthian Yacht Club, and party left last Sunday after-noon for a two weeks' cruise to Chesa-peake Bay, Betterton, Md., and other near-by resorts in his power yacht Tel-mah, The party included A. Cassels and E. K. Lowe, of Pittaburg, Pa.

Much interest to being shown by the members of the Washington Cance Club in the regarts which will be beid the first week in September, and from present indications it will be one of the tunnient affairs ever hald in this city, as Genezocious W. A Regers and there will

It was announced that Walter Thrall will represent the Potomac Boat Club in the junior sculis at the Middle States regatta at Baltimore. The Potomac Junior crew is now in charge of Bob Slocum. It has been showing up splendidly in practice and will undoubtedly make a fine showing. Oliver Bright, of the Capital Yacht Club, went to Marshall Hall yesterday afternoon in George H. Bright's yawi Preya. He will return late this even-Club, and a party of friends went to

Marshall Hall yesterday afternoon in his yawl Grace K. The party in-cluded William E. Laub, Jr., Ted Shepherd, and Dr. Henderson. Mr. Cruitt will return this evening. S. J. Kubel, an enthusiastic boatnan of the Capital Yacht Club, left for White House, Va., yesterday afternoon in his power cruiser, Louise K. He will return Sunday night. He was accompanied by his son, Herbert Kubel, and a party of friends, Dr. John R. Emory, of the Capital Yacht Club, started on a two weeks' cruise to Annapolis, Md., and other near-by resorts yesterday afternoon in his one-masted dugout cance. Nannie G. He was accompanied by a party

Capt. Willis Pomeroy, of the baseball Miss Margaret Johnson and Albert Hale, jr., were among the many golfers who epjoyed playing on the course of the Washington Country Club last Tuesday afternoon. Miss Johnson had some day afternoon. Miss Johnson had some Club. C. Lyon and J. Leets also enTuesday afternoon, and judging from the last week
Tuesday afternoon, and judging from the last we a fast bunch of ball towers, and will undoubtedly make a good showing. nam of the Washington Canoe Club, is have a fast bunch of ball tessers, and will undoubtedly make a good showing against the local cracks. It is inter-esting to note that Mr. Pomeroy is a professional, having played with the Philadeiphia Nationals about eight years

Local cancelsts had the pleasure seeing one of the most beautiful lan-tern parades ever held in this city last Wednesday evening, when nearly fifty handsomely decorated canoes formed handsomely decorated cances formed the line that started from the Analostan Boat Club and ended at the Washington Cance Club. It took over an hour before the finish line was reached. The parads started at 9 o'clock. Commodore William A. Rogers, who is responsible for the splendid arrangements, deserves much credit for the faultiens way in which be conducted the parade. It was certainly a beautiful scene, and will undoubtedly not be forgotten by the many spectators who

Wednesday afternoon.

Frank T. Rawlings, of the Capital Yacht Club, is having his 25-foot hunting cabin cruiser. Maybelle, repainted. He will use his bont this fall for hunting ducks. The work is being done by William Wilson, janitor at the club, and the assistant janitor, John Branson.

Adrian Sizer, of the Capital Tacht Club, will return this week from a week's trip to Piney Point and the lower river in his 9-foot cabin cruiser Awn, We Two. Russell Whelpley accompanied